

Faculty Governance Council for the College of Pharmacy.

1. This process varies among the departments. Some departments are given a budget with little flexibility to allocate expenses. Other departments are given flexibility over non-state funds and in those departments the faculty decide together how to allocate expenses.
2. There are no such plans at this time.